Laura – could you send to Maggie the spreadsheet from the last abs reporting period in 2012. This should have an approximate number for Maggie.

I guess I was wrong about 2010. This blows me away. But it also shows the numbers aren't there.

I would almost send to all (poll worker stuff is up to you guys).

Other non-list type groups might be Rev. Pierce and the folks he brings in regularly, Ohio VIP, others like that.

My thought would be that the information is out there and even if we poke bears this shows it in context that they may not have thought of...certainly open to all ideas and concerns though.

The SOS is asking me who else we are sending this to other than media... 😊

What do you think about boards (or does that just poke bears)?
Poll worker list – which I know is a huge effort?
Legislators (all or just Rs?)
Regional obviously

The other lists we have:

Business groups

Libraries

Military (but I probably wouldn't because there's no mention of military voting)

The thought would be to share the information and ask them to share it with friends and/or on social media etc.

Voting in Ohio Is Easy...

Voting Is Easy in Ohio

To all Ohio voters: There has been a lot of discussion about recent changes in the voting laws. Some of that discussion has informed and some of it has misled. As the chief elections official in our state I want you to have the facts about how easy it is to vote in Ohio. Please use it to guide your many choices in casting a ballot in General Election this November.

Option 1 – Vote by Mail

Around Labor Day, my office will be sending all registered voters an application to vote by mail. Complete it, return it in the envelope provided and your ballot will be mailed to you starting 28 days before the election. Then, when it is most convenient for you and from the comfort of your own home, you can fill out your ballot.

Many will choose to mail it back in the security envelope provided, never having to leave home to vote. Still others will choose to drop it off at the board of elections – either way your ballot will be counted as part of the official tally on Election Day.

Option 2 – Vote Early In Person

Beginning on October 7, 2014, and over the course of four weeks, you can go to your local board of elections during regular business hours to cast your ballot in person. To accommodate voters who cannot go during the week, your board of elections will also be open for voting from 8 am to 4 pm on the two Saturdays before the Election. This bipartisan voting schedule was recommended by local Republican and Democratic elections officials and will be the same in each of the 88 Ohio counties, ensuring all voters have equal access to the polls no matter where they live.

Option 3 – Election Day

And let's not forget Election Day itself, when polls close to your home will be open from 6:30 am until 7:30 pm.

With absentee voting starting 28 days before the election, Ohio remains above the national average for access to voting. Many of our surrounding states, including Michigan, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and New York don't even provide an early voting option. In addition, with the exception of states that vote exclusively by mail, Ohio has been the only state to send absentee ballot applications to all voters ahead of the election. These steps meant that Ohioans did not experience long lines at the polls that other states did in 2012 when approximately one in three Ohio voters chose to vote prior to Election Day. In fact, independent studies said the wait time in Ohio was 11 minutes.

Ohio is the most important swing state in the nation and as Secretary of State, I will continue to work to build the best system of elections in the nation where it will continue to be easy to vote and hard to cheat.

Mr. Damschroder,

Last week, the ACLU of Ohio sent the attached letter to the Hamilton County Board of Elections regarding our concerns over the proposal to move the location of early voting to the suburban neighborhood of Mt. Airy.

I am also enclosing a map we produced of Hamilton County. As you can see, the map uses American Community Survey statistics to illustrate how relocation of the early voting site would negatively affect voters who rely on public transportation.

We sent this information to the Board of Elections in the hopes that they would reach a compromise at their February 11, 2014 meeting. Unfortunately, the Board did not agree on a compromise, so we are forwarding this information to you for your consideration in the event that Secretary Husted must break their tie vote.

If Secretary Husted is compelled to break the tie vote, we urge him to retain early voting in the central downtown area that has greater accessibility for public transit. This is a benefit for low-income voters and voters with disabilities who rely on public transportation. As Secretary Husted has said himself, keeping the early voting location in downtown Cincinnati is "logical"--and the ACLU of Ohio could not agree more.

Thank you and please feel free to reach out should you have any questions or concerns.

RE: Hamilton County Early Voting Location

Dear Chairman Burke:

We are writing to request that you keep Hamilton County's early voting location in the centralized downtown area. While we understand the board is grappling with financial and facilities issues that have precipitated the discussion to move offices, the primary duty of the Board of Elections is to serve voters. The proposed move of Hamilton County's early voting location to Mt. Airy would be a disservice to the tens of thousands of voters who have previously utilized early in-person voting.

Please see the enclosed map that our office created using statistics from the American Community Survey. The map analyzes the population in the city of Cincinnati that has access to a vehicle in their household. As you can see, there is a much larger proportion of individuals who do not have a vehicle who live in or near the city's center. These individuals likely rely on public transportation to take them to various locations across Cincinnati. Also, we have included on the map an overlay of bus routes provided by SORTA. While there are many routes to and around downtown Cincinnati, there are very few that go to the proposed Mt. Airy location.

If the early voting location moves to Mt. Airy, it would undeniably have a negative impact on low-income voters and those who rely on public transportation. Travel to and from the Mt. Airy location to simply vote early in-person could take several hours, which is unreasonable. In addition, this move would also be harmful to voters with disabilities who are unable to drive and rely on public transportation to vote early in-person.

Early voting should be convenient and accessible to all voters. As election officials, we know you are keenly aware of the benefits of early voting, including: enhanced voter participation, decreases in long lines on Election Day, and the ability for election officials to troubleshoot voter problems ahead of Election Day. We urge the Board of Elections to reach a compromise that retains the early voting location in downtown Cincinnati, so that it is easily accessible to public transportation and does not negatively impact voters' access to this important service.

Subject: In Person Early Voting Hours for May Primary

Matt and/or Matt,

We have a question concerning Directive 2014-01, which established hours for in-person early voting. On Friday, May 2, the hours established are 8am - 5pm. However, RC 3509.03 requires Boards to accept applications for absent voter ballots until 6pm on the Friday before the election. Given the hours set in the Directive, are we to accept applications for absent voter ballots until 6:00pm that day but not permit voters to vote in person? We are concerned that voters may become very upset if we cannot permit them to vote in that period while our office is still open.

Thanks for your help in clarifying this,

Matt,

Please advise who you want to answer the questions below. Elise Major is working for a professor at the University of Baltimore who has been requested, by the Maryland General Assembly, to conduct a study and present the findings to them on January 8. The task is to find five states similar to Maryland's in absentee voting procedures. In Maryland, they take the cards from their e-pollbooks and load the names of the absentee "early voters" to the pollbooks so the precinct election officials at the polls on Election Day will know if the voter has previously voted absentee. The General Assembly is concerned with this process, hence the university has been asked to conduct a study with other states. The information provided will appear in the Washington Post, so the University of Baltimore wants to take extra steps to insure the accuracy of the survey.

Greetings Election Directors and Staff,

Thanks again for speaking with us in an effort to help us understand more about early voting in your state. On the behalf of the Maryland State Board of Elections we are in the process of compiling our report that will be presented to the Maryland General Assembly in January of 2014.

Listed below are those questions concerning early voting. We would appreciate if you could answer these questions and send them back to us.

Many Thanks,

Elise Major Whiteford

My understanding is that the previous administration did have an initial list for 2008 but that it wasn't updated as counties added days and hours (e.g., Franklin expanded its hours for the weekend before the election during the weekend before the election – that wasn't included in the record). I'm not aware of anything that was kept for 2010 or for 2006, but I'll look around.

Hi Matt,

I'm doing some research, and I was hoping you could help me locate some data.

I'm trying to do a comparative study of early voting days and hours around the state since 2006. We know anecdotally that it has varied quite a bit from county to county, especially large versus small counties. But I'd like to do an actual evidence-based comparison.

Does your office have any of that data? I'd be happy to make a formal records request, if needed, but I didn't want to trouble anyone unless the data exists.

Thanks,
Carrie

One question about the proposed schedule for the two days: I very much like the fact that we are including the issue of post-election timelines at the introductory session of the first day: it appropriately signals the importance of the issue. Since the timetable involves the handling of provisional ballots as an important component, and provisional ballots are a topic of the second session, I'm wondering how the two separate discussions will be related, and how we might wish to coordinate them.

Looking forward to discussing further, as necessary, Ned

Thanks, John and Ned, for your patience during this intervening quiet period – I think one month to the day since our last phone conversation. We've been trying to get some ducks in a row here and I think we're ready to pull the trigger. The Secretary has selected 3/15 as the kickoff for the working group, assuming that still works well with your schedules. I've attached a list of attendees (have not confirmed with any of them yet – will do that as a part of the invitation email) and also a draft schedule. I think it best to pair things down to two one-day meetings in Columbus with particular focus on voter registration / provisional voting and voter registration modernization. I will rely exclusively on the two of you to drive the discussion ... I have experience participating in panel conversations not moderating / facilitating them so I think this is in the best interest of the group. ;)

We'd like to get the invitation information out this week – and I can facilitate that. Do you have time or think it necessary to have another quick phone conversation to discuss before we launch? I'm available at your convenience.

Thank you again for your flexibility.

Dear Friend (or no salutation)

In Ohio, we're working to make it easy to vote and hard to cheat.

Below is important voting information from Secretary of State Jon Husted pertaining to the general election this November.

Please help us spread the word by sharing it with your friends and contacts via e-mail, or through social media. You can find links to the Ohio voting map on our Facebook and Twitter pages (links below).

Voting in Ohio Is Easy...

Voting Is Easy in Ohio

To all Ohio voters: There has been a lot of discussion about recent changes in the voting laws. Some of that discussion has informed and some of it has misled. As the chief elections official in our state I want you to have the facts about how easy it is to vote in Ohio. Please use it to guide your many choices in casting a ballot in General Election this November.

Option 1 – Vote by Mail

Around Labor Day, my office will be sending all registered voters an application to vote by mail. Complete it, return it in the envelope provided and your ballot will be mailed to you starting 28 days before the election. Then, when it is most convenient for you and from the comfort of your own home, you can fill out your ballot.

Many will choose to mail it back in the security envelope provided, never having to leave home to vote. Still others will choose to drop it off at the board of elections – either way your ballot will be counted as part of the official tally on Election Day.

Option 2 – Vote Early In Person

Beginning on October 7, 2014, and over the course of four weeks, you can go to your local board of elections during regular business hours to cast your ballot in person. To accommodate voters who cannot go during the week, your board of elections will also be open for voting from 8 am to 4 pm on the two Saturdays before the Election. This bipartisan voting schedule was recommended by local Republican and Democratic elections officials and will be the same in each of the 88 Ohio counties, ensuring all voters have equal access to the polls no matter where they live.

Option 3 – Election Day

And let's not forget Election Day itself, when polls close to your home will be open from 6:30 am until 7:30 pm.

With absentee voting starting 28 days before the election, Ohio remains above the national average for access to voting. Many of our surrounding states, including Michigan, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and New York don't even provide an early voting option. In addition, with the exception of states that vote exclusively by mail, Ohio has been the only state to send absentee ballot applications to all voters ahead of the election. These steps meant that Ohioans did not experience long lines at the polls that other states did in 2012 when approximately one in three Ohio voters chose to vote prior to Election Day. In fact, independent studies said the wait time in Ohio was 11 minutes.

Ohio is the most important swing state in the nation and as Secretary of State, I will continue to work to build the best system of elections in the nation where it will continue to be easy to vote and hard to cheat.

For additional information on voting in 2014, I encourage you to visit www.MyOhioVote.com.

Secretary Husted is Ohio's 53rd Secretary of State. As the chief elections official in one of the most hotly-contested swing states in the nation, Secretary Husted has worked to modernize Ohio's election system through the use of technology to streamline the voting process and clean up the voter rolls, making it easier to vote and harder to cheat. In 2012, under his leadership, Ohio delivered a smooth and fair Presidential Election with record absentee voting turnout.

No problem at all from our end for you to have access to the PEO newsletter list. I think it's a good idea.

Damschroder – if we did want to send to the poll worker list, do you think Laura would give us her list so the sending burden could be on us rather than her? Or do you think she'd rather do it herself? I know we have to send afterhours and in batches because of email limits...

I would almost send to all (poll worker stuff is up to you guys).

Other non-list type groups might be Rev. Pierce and the folks he brings in regularly, Ohio VIP, others like that.

My thought would be that the information is out there and even if we poke bears this shows it in context that they may not have thought of...certainly open to all ideas and concerns though.

The SOS is asking me who else we are sending this to other than media... 😊

What do you think about boards (or does that just poke bears)?

Poll worker list – which I know is a huge effort?

Legislators (all or just Rs?)

Regional obviously

The other lists we have:

Business groups

Libraries

Military (but I probably wouldn't because there's no mention of military voting)

The thought would be to share the information and ask them to share it with friends and/or on social media etc.

Voting in Ohio Is Easy...

Voting Is Easy in Ohio

To all Ohio voters: There has been a lot of discussion about recent changes in the voting laws. Some of that discussion has informed and some of it has misled. As the chief elections official in our state I want you to have the facts about how easy it is to vote in Ohio. Please use it to guide your many choices in casting a ballot in General Election this November.

Option 1 – Vote by Mail

Around Labor Day, my office will be sending all registered voters an application to vote by mail. Complete it, return it in the envelope provided and your ballot will be mailed to you starting 28 days before the election. Then, when it is most convenient for you and from the comfort of your own home, you can fill out your ballot.

Many will choose to mail it back in the security envelope provided, never having to leave home to vote. Still others will choose to drop it off at the board of elections – either way your ballot will be counted as part of the official tally on Election Day.

Option 2 – Vote Early In Person

Beginning on October 7, 2014, and over the course of four weeks, you can go to your local board of elections during regular business hours to cast your ballot in person. To accommodate voters who cannot go during the week, your board of elections will also be open for voting from 8 am to 4 pm on the two Saturdays before the Election. This bipartisan voting schedule was recommended by local Republican and Democratic elections officials and will be the same in each of the 88 Ohio counties, ensuring all voters have equal access to the polls no matter where they live.

Option 3 – Election Day

And let's not forget Election Day itself, when polls close to your home will be open from 6:30 am until 7:30 pm.

With absentee voting starting 28 days before the election, Ohio remains above the national average for access to voting. Many of our surrounding states, including Michigan, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and New York don't even provide an early voting option. In addition, with the exception of states that vote exclusively by mail, Ohio has been the only state to send absentee ballot applications to all voters ahead of the election. These steps meant that Ohioans did not experience long lines at the polls that other states did in 2012 when approximately one in three Ohio voters chose to vote prior to Election Day. In fact, independent studies said the wait time in Ohio was 11 minutes.

Ohio is the most important swing state in the nation and as Secretary of State, I will continue to work to build the best system of elections in the nation where it will continue to be easy to vote and hard to cheat.

Dear NASS Elections Committee:

As noted on the call yesterday, I will be out of the office next week traveling with a delegation of Secretaries to China. If you have questions about legislative activity in the Senate, please contact Kay Stimson (nass@sso.org or 202-624-3528) or John Milhofer (jmilhofer@sso.org or 202-624-3529).

Elections Committee 12/4 Conference Call Notes

Thank you for participating in the call yesterday. Attached are notes from the call yesterday. Please review the notes to learn more about possible action on amendments filed to the National Defense Authorization Act (NDAA): Senate Amendment 2384, also introduced as a separate piece of legislation called the SENTRI Act by Sen. Schumer (D-NY)/Sen. Cornyn(R-TX) and Senate Amendment 2480 introduced by Sen. Gillibrand (D-NY). The Senate returns to DC on December 9th and is scheduled to return to deliberations on NDAA. There are over 500 amendments filed on NDAA.

Sec. Gant (SD) Announces new Military Initiative using Military Common Access Card (CAC)

As promised on the Elections Committee call, I am sharing the press release issued earlier this week by Secretary Gant on SD's new Innovative Overseas Absentee-Balloting System (iOASIS). The program will be launched for the 2014 elections. They worked with FVAP on this program which employs the use of the military's Common Access Card which allows SD to verify and authenticate the identity of the voter.

Senate Rules Announces Hearing on Nominations to EAC

Also discussed on the call, Senate Rules issued notice of a hearing on two EAC Commissioner nominees for next Wednesday, December 11, 2014 at 10AM EST. Tom Hick and Myrna Perez are the two Democratic nominees. There are no Republican nominees at this time. No vote will be held in committee next week. Senate Rules staff says there is not time to vote on these nominees before the Senate adjourns this month, so any vote in Committee will come after the new year.

Senator Schumer (D-NY) interested in Introducing Elections PREP Act

Finally, as mentioned yesterday, we just learned that Sen. Schumer (D-NY) and Chair of the Senate Rules Committee is working on legislation (attached) regarding election emergency preparedness. He is interested in introducing this legislation before the Senate adjourns this month. We have shared with his committee staff the resources we have on the NASS website on this topic and the fact that our Task Force on Emergency Preparedness for Elections will be releasing their report on the subject at the NASS 2014 Winter Conference. A summary of the bill is below.

Summary of Sen. Schumer's Draft Legislation " Elections Preparedness Requires Early Planning \(Elections PREP\) Act"

- Amends HAVA to require each state to develop contingency plans to address unexpected emergencies or natural disasters that may threaten to disrupt the administration of a federal election. States must develop the plan in consultation with state emergency preparedness organizations, including state and local law enforcement agencies, state emergency management offices, electric companies, and local fire departments.
- The contingency plan must include alternative ways to notify the public of changes in election procedures and plans to address disruptions at every step of the voting process including early voting. The state must review and update the plan (as needed) no later than 180 days before each regularly scheduled federal election.
- If a state has not filed with the EAC a certification under section 253(a) of HAVA the state must file a statement with the EAC certifying that it is in compliance with the contingency plan requirements. State must also update the state plan to describe how it will develop the contingency plans.
- States must comply with the requirements of the bill beginning with the 2014 federal election.
- The Administrator of FEMA may provide financial assistance to states under the emergency management performance grants program for the purpose of developing a contingency plan.

Thanks so much.
